【Our company's manufacturing, regarding your company's products】

We would like to inform you of our opinion regarding the current problem with red yeast rice as follows.

Your products "Fretub PREMIUM" "Clear Mind Pro" and "GABA Green Tea" that we manufacture do not contain any raw materials derived from red yeast rice.

In addition, our products are manufactured under GMP and HACCP standards under production control, quality control, and hygiene control, and raw materials from other products do not mix into the above products.
